

Identity Check

Mission: Help the next helper know who is where.

Part 1 Answer key

1. Who is “He”?

A. Mr. Adler

Yes. “He” points back to Mr. Adler, the person named just before it.

2. Who is “They”?

A. The two visitors

Yes. “They” points back to the two visitors.

3. Match: I

A. am

Yes. I am. “I” means the speaker, and “I” takes am.

4. Match: He

A. is

Yes. He is. “He”, “she” and “it” take is.

5. Match: They

A. are

Yes. They are. You, we and they take are.

6. New case: Ms. Ruiz

A. is

Yes. The name Ms. Ruiz takes is: Ms. Ruiz is the library aide.

7. Where is she?

A. front counter

Yes. The case card says Ms. Ruiz is at the front counter.

8. Who is “She”?

A. Ms. Ruiz

Yes. “She” points back to Ms. Ruiz. The case card says she uses she/her.

Part 2 Model for discussion

Example handover · not student work

Ms. Ruiz is the library aide. She is at the front counter.

Other accurate wording that preserves the evidence is welcome. Writing is not graded.

Supported writing

The model shows one supported version. The student sheet leaves space for learners to write or revise their own version.

Write a supported two-sentence handover using your choices in questions 6 and 7. Keep the name first, then the pronoun. You can revise your wording.

Review your writing

Keep the name first, then the pronoun.

Writing is not graded. Other accurate wording is welcome.

Source and scope

Adapted from Grammar Spy's Identify curriculum and practice, with new English Attic examples. Separate Grammar Spy member decks, Vault files and paid packets are not included.

Grammar Spy: Identity Check